Could you cope with a spouse/partner who came from old money (or had that mindset)?

It would bother me if my spouse or partner:

- □ Spent money on private club memberships.
- □ Had a trust fund from birth.
- □ Insisted on the artistic quality and merit of household items, clothing, accessories, and so on.
- □ Had a personal assistant to assist with purchases of clothing and accessories.
- □ Spent money on a personal tailor and physical trainer.
- □ Spent a great deal of time on charitable activities and did not make or take money for that time.
- □ Placed our children in the care of a nanny.
- \Box Insisted that our children be placed in private boarding schools at the age of six.
- □ Talked a lot about the presentation of food.
- □ Staffed and maintained homes in more than one country.
- □ Spent money on a private airplane and/or yacht.
- □ Established trust funds for our children at birth.
- □ Maintained social and financial connections with individuals whom I didn't like.
- □ Had family members who looked down on me because of my bloodline or pedigree (or lack thereof).
- □ Kept an accountant, lawyer, domestic service agency, and investment broker on retainer.
- □ Was adamant about details, insisting on perfection in virtually everything.
- □ Wanted to have nothing further to do with a decent individual who didn't have a suitable connection.
- □ Spent $1 million-plus on an original piece of art, and would only purchase original works of art.
- □ Attended an Ivy League college or university.
- □ Valued me largely for my social connections.
- □ Reviewed family assets and liabilities on a monthly basis.
- □ Purchased furniture and furnishings for their artistic merit or designer designation.
- □ Kept almost no food in the house.

Action 2 Hidden Rules

Could you cope with a spouse/partner who came from middle class (or had that mindset)?

It would bother me if my spouse or partner:

- □ Spent long hours at the office.
- □ Required our household to run on a budget.
- □ Planned out our week in advance.
- □ Started a college fund at the birth of our child.
- □ Hired a plumber to do a needed repair.
- □ Fixed the plumbing himself/herself.
- □ Played golf every weekend with his buddies.
- □ Kept a job that he/she hates for financial reasons.
- □ Rigidly adhered to time demands—and was often early.
- □ Was organized, keeping a paper trail on everything.
- □ Refused to give money to relatives who weren't working.
- □ Refused to allow a relative to come live with us.
- □ Planned vacations a year in advance.
- □ Spent evenings taking graduate courses.
- Devoted considerable time to a community charitable event.
- □ Shopped for high-quality clothing/shoes/accessories, then charged those items.
- □ Withdrew TV, computer, and other privileges from the children as part of discipline.
- □ Paid for our child's college expenses and tuition.
- □ Paid for tennis, golf, dance, swimming, and other types of lessons for our child.
- □ Often made a big issue over the quality of food.
- Bought reprints and numbered artwork as part of our home's décor.
- □ Purchased furniture for its practicality and match to the décor.
- □ Had family members who discounted me because of my lack of education or achievement.

Could you cope with a spouse/partner who came from generational poverty (or had that mindset)?

It would bother me if my spouse or partner:

- □ Repeatedly gave money to a relative who would not work.
- □ Left household bills unpaid in order to give money to a relative.
- □ Loaned the car to a relative who doesn't have insurance and cannot be insured.
- □ Allowed a relative to move in and stay with you.
- Didn't pay attention to time (e.g., missed dates, was extremely late, didn't show).
- Quit jobs without having another one because he/she didn't like the boss.
- □ Cursed at his/her boss in public.
- □ Physically fought—fairly frequently.
- Didn't think education was important.
- □ Left items in the house unrepaired.
- □ Used physical punishment on the children as part of discipline.
- □ Viewed himself as a "fighter" or a "lover" who works hard physically.
- \Box Served food from the stove, and ate most meals in front of the TV.
- □ Almost always had the TV and/or radio on, and often loudly.
- □ Kept the house dark on the inside—poorly lit and with window coverings closed.
- □ Kept organizational patterns of household chaotic.
- □ Bought clothing from secondhand stores, garage sales, and so on.
- D Bought designer clothing or shoes for our children, but didn't pay an urgent household bill.
- □ Made a big deal about the quantity of food.
- □ Viewed me as a possession.
- □ Had family members who made fun of me for having a college degree.
- □ Bragged about me by talking badly about me.
- \Box Chose to spend time with relatives, rather than spending time with me.
- □ Purchased alcoholic beverages for entertainment before paying for necessities (e.g., car insurance, utilities, rent).
